In the Footsteps of the Vikings - daytrip from Copenhagen to Roskilde (+ INR 7000 PP)

Join a day dedicated to the Vikings. An English-speaking guide will take you along to all the sights and tell you all you need to know.

At the Viking Ship Museum in Roskilde you can really follow the Vikings footsteps, you will learn how they lived and get an insight into their craftsmanship. At the museum you can also see the beautiful and impressive original ships they used to travel to faraway places.

At the remarkable UNESCO listed Roskilde Cathedral, the famous Viking kings of Harald Bluetooth and Sweyn Forkbeard are buried alongside almost 40 Danish kings and queens. The Cathedral is one of the earliest examples of gothic architecture in Northern Europe and you will hear stories of how Sweyn Forkbeard conquered England as well as tales of Harald Bluetooth.

You will not only follow in the footsteps of the Vikings, you will be at the cradle of Danish civilization in Lejre, one of the most important power centers during the Viking Era and Iron Age dating from 500-1000 AC and home to a unique complex of long houses. At Lejre Museum, located in the national park Skjoldungernes Land, you will learn about ferocious myths, and taste a glass of the legendary Viking drink mead, which legend has it "he who drinks mead is ensured eloquence and knowledge".

Castles Tour from Copenhagen: North Zealand and Hamlet Castle (+ INR 9000 PP)

Leave Copenhagen behind as you head north through magnificent Danish countryside and coastline towards Elsinore and Kronborg Castle. Chosen as the setting for Shakespeare's Hamlet, this magnificent renaissance castle is on the UNESCO world heritage list.

After lunch (own expense), your tour continues towards Fredensborg, where the Queen's summer residence of Fredensborg Palace is attractively located in the middle of a lovely park, bordering the idyllic Esrum Lake.

The next highlight on your tour is Frederiksborg Castle, built by King Christian IV in 1601 - 1625. This pearl of history, built in magnificent Renaissance style with a touch of baroque, is now a national historical museum, containing treasures of painting, tapestry, porcelain, silver and furniture.

Air-conditioned vehicle, Guided tour in English on Frederiksborg Castle and Kronborg Castle, Photo stop at Fredensborg Castle, Entry/Admission - Frederiksborg Castle, Entry/Admission - Kronborg Slot
